

BREAK INTO LAW is DLA Piper's first global initiative focused on removing barriers to the wide range of careers within the legal profession for talented, underrepresented young people.

-  MENTORING
-  WORK EXPERIENCE
-  INTERNSHIPS
-  LEGAL EDUCATION

193 projects
have been implemented
across DLA Piper globally

-  CAREER INSIGHT
-  ACCESS TO EDUCATION
-  SCHOLARSHIPS AND SPONSORSHIPS
-  EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

92% of students participating in our BreakThrough programme indicated that the workshop inspired them to pursue further studies after graduating

3,511 students
have benefited from our projects

Over 2,850
DLA Piper volunteers
providing 6,000+ hours
of support.

100% of work experience students stated that they had an increased understanding of the types of jobs available in professional organisations. 94% reported they had a greater understanding of what they would like to do in their future career

We have collaborated with over 30 commercial clients on Break into Law projects including:

- | | |
|----------|----------------------|
| Lloyds | HSBC |
| RBS | Compass |
| Aviva | Zurich |
| Barclays | Boehringer Ingelheim |

“ I was the first in my family to go to university. I feel it is important to help young people from all kinds of backgrounds to reach their full potential and encourage them to achieve the best they can. By investing in young talent today, we are ensuring we can face the challenges of tomorrow. ”

Sir Nigel Knowles, Global Co-Chairman