Article 2. Lawyers at Work

2.1 A Lawyers at Work event is a project which allows law students and young lawyers to experience the working culture and environment of the legal profession first-hand.

2.2 Lawyers at Work events are meant to provide practical insights into the legal profession and, as such, shall involve interactive learning opportunities.

2.3 Lawyers at Work events can be organised in different ways, such as:

- a. as a single session;
- b. as part of a series;
- c. as an open day; or
- d. including a job fair; and
- e. including a case study;
