

ELSA X LexisNexis Rule of Law Essay Competition 2024

SUBMISSION CRITERIA

Topic of the Competition:

“Corruption and the Rule of Law”

Submission Requirements

Submissions for the ELSA x LexisNexis Essay Competition must:

- Use in British English in compliance with the Language Manual;
- Be the original work of the author(s) submitting them for the competition;
- Comply with the ELSA Law Review Plagiarism Policy;
- Comply with the ELSA Law Review Style Guide;
- Be referenced in accordance with the Oxford University Standard for the Citation of Legal Authorities (OSCOLA);
- Not have been published previously in any capacity;
- Include a short abstract, consisting of a maximum of 10% of the length of the submission, as well as an author’s biography not exceeding 100 words;
- Be submitted as a file readable by Microsoft Word;
- Be no longer than 7,500 words including footnotes and appendices.

The Competition’s topic as well as expectations as to the content will be further specified in a relevant section on the ELSA Rule of Law website.

Any submissions not meeting the above-mentioned criteria shall not be taken into consideration during the initial assessment phase and shall not be peer-reviewed.

Essays submitted after 17/05/2024 00:00 CET shall not be taken into consideration. All the essays shall be submitted on the relevant form on the website.

The winning essay shall be rewarded with the LexisNexis Rule of Law Award and will be published in the 2024/2025 ELSA Law Review. The Award is provided by LexisNexis – the Rule of Law partner of ELSA.

Please email any questions, comments or otherwise to ELSA International’s Director for Publications: director.publications@elsa.org.

The criteria used by the Editorial Board during the initial assessment phase shall be the following:

Assessment criteria

Relevance

- Does the essay comply with the topic of the Essay Competition?
- Is there a clear and interesting thesis?
- Does the author show a good grasp of the essay topic, developing it with depth?
- Is the essay understandable to a reader that is not familiar with the topic?
- Does the essay make an original contribution to the field, through new arguments/ perspectives/ conclusions/ recommendations on the topic?
- Will the essay capture and maintain the reader's attention?

Structure and Style

- Does the essay adhere to the Style Guide?
- Do the title and abstract reflect the contents of the essay?
- Is there a clear introduction, main body and conclusion?
- Is there coherence to the sentences and paragraphs?

Use of Language

- Is the use of language consistent with the recommendations of the ELSA Law Review Language Manual?
- Is there a consistent use of non-discriminatory and gender-neutral language?
- Is the English language and punctuation consistently and accurately in the style of British English?
- Is the use of British English in the standard and legal form to a high enough standard expected for the ELSA Law Review?
- Is there a logical flow and structure in the language used?

Sources and Referencing

- Does the submission cite sources in accordance with OSCOLA?
- Does the submission appear to be in compliance with the ELSA Law Review Plagiarism Policy?
- Does the range of sources referenced reflect the submission?