

Católica Global School of Law

ELSA Full Scholarship

Guidelines

1) What are the programmes I can receive a full scholarship for?

The LL.M. Law in a European and Global Context is an English taught programme with an unparalleled international focus, namely on Transnational, Comparative, European and Trade Law. Based on the Total Law approach developed by Joseph H.H. Weiler, this programme represents a bold pedagogical and intellectual break with the traditional ways of teaching Law.

The Advanced LL.M International Business Law is an intensive, advanced and English taught programme, directed specifically to those who seek an active and international professional the practice of Business Law; this programme has been successful in bringing together top international academics and professionals from both Europe and the United States.

The LL.M. Law in a Digital Economy is the new programme that will be launched in 2020-2021 and is focused on the way technology is changing the law fields. Designed for who believes technology is a clear positive potential for the development of our society, this LL.M. gives the necessary tools and the adequate knowledge to prepare legal professionals to deal with the challenges and opportunities of the digital economy.

2) Why should I apply?

Recognized by the Financial Times for its innovative character and listed among the top LL.M.s in the world, the Católica Global School of Law Programmes allows:

- an extremely high level of student's involvement, with no more than 30 students per class;
- various exchange and double LL.M. opportunities with a network of partner institutions worldwide (adicionar link)
- living in the vibrant city of Lisbon for one year.

3) How should you apply?

If you are an ELSA member, you should, in addition, to apply as a regular student, send your application to president@elsa.org (subject: CATOLICA-ELSA Scholarship Application-NAME SURNAME and Title of the LL.M), attaching a Motivation Letter and updated Curriculum Vitae.

Because of the partnership established between CGSL and ELSA, and the international profile of ELSA members, special attention will be given on the admission decision process to all applications referred by ELSA.

4) Until when should you apply?

The deadline to apply for a FULL Scholarship at Católica Global School of Law for LL.M. Law in a European and Global Context is the 10th of June 2020 at 23:59 CET.

For further information on the programme and the application process, please visit CGSL Website. We look forward to receiving many applications and to giving one ELSA member the opportunity to get the full scholarship at Católica Global School of Law!
