

23rd edition of the John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition

JOHN H. JACKSON
(1932 - 2015)

Professor, teacher, scholar and pioneer of International Trade and Economic Law, who is considered one of the chief architects of the multilateral trading system and the WTO.

The European Law Students' Association

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Join participants from over 90 schools from all continents
- Expand your knowledge of international trade law
- Master your legal writing, speaking, critical thinking and arguing skills in English
- Make connections for your future career and professional network including opportunities for scholarships and internships
- Travel to the location of the Regional Round for the chance to plead and qualify for the Final at the WTO Headquarters in Geneva among the world's best teams.

THE EUROPEAN LAW STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION (ELSA)

Founded in 1981, ELSA is the world's largest international, independent, non-political, non-profit association, represented in nearly 375 law faculties in 42 countries, with membership exceeding 60,000 law students and young lawyers. ELSA is the Main Organiser of the 23rd edition of the John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition. The World Trade Organization is the Technical Supporter of the Competition.

THE CASE OF THE 23RD EDITION

"Alabasta – Certain measures affecting digital goods and services"
How can WTO Members regulate data flows, effectively enforce competition norms in the digital economy, and promote their culture on streaming platforms in a WTO-consistent manner?

NEW TO INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW AND MOOTING?

We have the resources to help you get started!

- Dispute Settlement e-course
- Understanding the WTO materials
- WTO Analytical Index
- Video of the Final Oral Round of the 22nd edition
- Interview with Gabrielle Marceau

You don't have a coach?

We may be able to match you with a volunteer coach, contact us at: teams.jhjmcc@elsa.org.

Stay tuned for our webinars on researching, mooting and fundraising!

More information: johnhacksonmoot.elsa.org

THE
JOHN H. JACKSON
MOOT COURT COMPETITION

