

24TH EDITION OF THE John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition

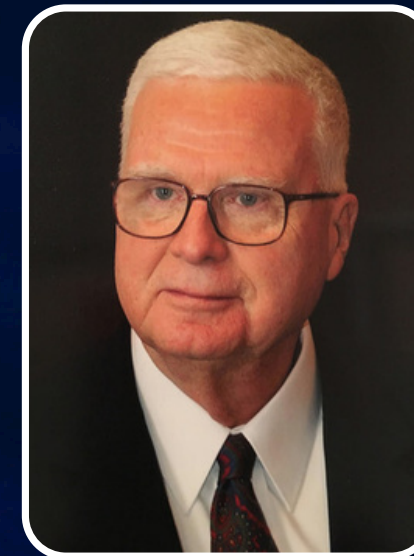

Why Participate?

- Travel to the Regional Round for the chance to qualify for the Final at the World Trade Organization Headquarters in Geneva
- Build a global network with opportunities for scholarships and internships
- Strengthen your legal writing, speaking, critical thinking and advocacy skills in English
- Expand your knowledge of international trade law and join participants from more than 90 law faculties

This Year's Case:

"Engeli - Measures Relating to Critical Minerals"

How can WTO Members advance sustainable goals through local content rules, structure critical minerals partnerships, and address human rights concerns in the supply chain, in a manner consistent with WTO rules?

John Howard Jackson
(1932 - 2015)

Served as Professor of Law at the University of Michigan Law School and at Georgetown University Law Center from where he also directed the Institute of International Economic Law. Was a pioneer of International Trade and Economic Law and is considered one of the chief architects of the multilateral trading system and the World Trade Organisation.

He acted as General Counsel to the U.S. Office of the Trade Representative, contributing significantly to the Trade Act of 1974.

About The European Law Students' Association (ELSA)

Founded in 1981, ELSA is the world's largest international, independent, non-political, non-profit law students' association, represented in 450 law faculties in 41 countries, with over 70,000 members. ELSA is the Main Organiser of the 24th edition of the John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition.

New to International Trade Law and Mooting?

We have the resources to help you get started!

- Dispute Settlement e-course
- Understanding the WTO materials
- WTO Analytical Index
- Interview with Gabrielle Marceau

Timeline of the Competition:

Is your Team Missing a Coach?

John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition
@johnhacksonmoot

ELSA may be able to match your team with a volunteer coach! Make sure to contact us at: teams.jhjmcc@elsa.org!

Legal Mooting Masterclass - Save the dates: 6th and 10th of October! Stay tuned for more details and for the registration link.

Jus Mundi Support - All registered teams will receive access to the Jus Mundi platform as a tool for research during the period of the Written Submissions!

For more information, visit johnhacksonmoot.elsa.org!