What we need your consent for:

Below you will find specific data processing activities for which we ask for your prior consent in order for them to take place. This means that before doing so, we will not process your personal data for these specific purposes.

To photograph and video record you during the 45th Anniversary of ELSA

- What we collect: Pictures and videos of you

To use the above photographs for promotional purposes related to ELSA. In particular, to use and publish the above photographs and videos of you in various media outlets, including but not limited to websites, social media, and promotional materials.

- What we publish: Pictures and videos of you

To process your health data in order to provide you with proper meals adapted to your food restrictions.

- What we collect: Health data (allergies, dietary requirements and other special requirements)

What This Means: By consenting, you are allowing us to collect, store, and, where it is specified, also publish the above-mentioned personal data. By not consenting, you are not allowing us to collect, store and publish the above-mentioned personal data for the purposes described in our Privacy Policy.

Your consent:

By selecting "I hereby consent to the processing of my data", you explicitly authorise us to start processing the personal data mentioned above for the purpose you consent to. Additionally, you can reject this processing by selecting "I hereby do not consent to the processing of my data". If you choose the latter, we shall not process your personal data for those purposes.

Your rights:

You retain the right to revoke this consent at any time, affecting future processing, but not the lawfulness of the processing done before the withdrawal. You may reach out to us with any privacy-related inquiry at: secgen@elsa.org.
