

ELSA's Privacy Policy for Online International Internal Meetings

ELSA is a non-political independent, not-for-profit organisation organised on a local, national and international level. This privacy policy will explain how the International Board of ELSA uses the personal data we collect from you.

I. International Internal Meetings of ELSA

International Internal Meetings refer to the biannual International Council Meeting of ELSA as well as the International Training Meeting and the International Strategy Meeting of ELSA.

II. Legal basis for the processing of the data

The legal basis for processing your data is Art 6 (1) point (a) 'the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes' and point (c) 'processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject'.

III. What data do we collect?

The International Board collects the following data:

- Name (mandatory);
- Email address (mandatory);
- Affiliation with ELSA (i.e. local, national, or international level) (mandatory);
- Preferred Area workshop (mandatory).

IV. How do we collect your data?

You directly provide the International Board of ELSA with all the data we collect. We collect data and process data when you:

- Submit your application through the online form;
- Submit the Excel form.

V. How will we use your data?

The International Board of ELSA collects your data so that we can:

- Process your applications;
- Email you with information and access links to the online International Internal Meetings;
- Plan workshops and working groups;
- Keep an attendance sheet used for the official minutes of the International Internal Meeting;
- Contact individuals to offer them positions as Workshop Officers.
- Keep an official record (minutes) of the decisions and discussions taken as required by Dutch law.

If we were to process your personal data for any other purpose, you will be contacted prior and we will provide you with any necessary information. We will not disclose or share any personal data with third parties.

VI. How do we protect your data?

The International Board securely stores your data on the password protected office computer of the Secretary General of the International Board. Any other copy of the data will be deleted after the end of the application period.

The International Board will keep your provided data until the following 31st of July for human resources purposes. After this date, we will delete your data by erasing it from the password protected office computer of the Secretary General of the International Board.

Your name and surname as well as your affiliation with ELSA will be part of the official minutes of these internal meetings which are published after each meeting and stored on the intranet of ELSA accessible only by username and password.

VII. What are your data protection rights?

The International Board would like to make sure you are fully aware of all of your data protection rights. Every user is entitled to the following:

- The right to withdraw consent – You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time and to require the International Board to stop processing and storing your data.
- The right to access - You have the right to request the International Board for copies of your personal data.
