ELSA Delegations

Examples of motivation letters

Foreword

In order to explain what the motivation letter for an ELSA Delegation should consist of, the ELSA Delegations Team created the examples of “good” and “bad” motivation letters. The document shows how the respective part of the ELSA Delegation Selection Criteria could be applied into the motivation letter of an applicant. Please note that the given examples present imaginary ELSA Delegation, thus should not be copy pasted into the motivation letters created by the applicants.

Best of luck with your applications!

Example of good motivation letter

Dear European Quidditch Federation,

With this letter I would like to express my interest in participating in the Quidditch World Cup 2020 as a regional delegate.

I was delighted to discover that this event is to be held in Dublin, in March 2020. My passion for the Quidditch have been, since the beginning of my studies, at the core of my interests. I wish to seize this opportunity and deepen my knowledge about the world of Quidditch, as well as meet the global actors of this worldwide, magic sport.

In order to understand the current trends and complete my class of International Quidditch Relations, for two years now, I have been closely following the results of the Quidditch League in more than five countries. In addition to that, my role as captain of the Junior Quidditch Team of Hogwarts gave me the opportunity to embody the role of a Quidditch leader and thus to understand better the internal functioning of a Quidditch Team. Moreover, I had the chance to hold a position of the head of the organising committee of the Triwizard Winter ball, held in Hogwarts, last December. This latter commitment enabled me to develop my skills as an organiser of the high level meeting, as well as endorse a role full of responsibilities.

Above all that, as a great fan of this wizard's sport, I believe to be fitted for the position of the regional delegate for the Quidditch World Cup 2020. All my past experience, not only in the field of Quidditch, but also in organisation of events, are a key background to fulfil the tasks required as the regional delegate.

To conclude, I would like to emphasise the fact, that not only would I be honoured to represent the European Quidditch Federation, but attending this event would also be an occasion for me to strengthen my curriculum, as I am writing an academic article in the field of Quidditch . The theoretical and practical knowledge, I would have a chance to gain whilst attending the event, would be a great asset to improve the quality and credibility of it. Furthermore, next year, I intend to apply for a full membership of the Hogwarts Quidditch Board. Thus, representing the European Quidditch Federation would be the perfect prelude to a career in the world of Quidditch.

I hope that my experience, motivation and passion, convinced you that I am the right choice for the position,

I remain at your disposal should you need any further information.

Best regards,

Example of bad motivation letter

Dear United World Quidditch Federation,

I saw that you sent people to Quidditch meeting. I could not believe when I notice this delegation. I would really like to have a chance of going for this delegation, because the meeting is held by the international institution, in which I believe. Besides, I love travelling, I am interested in going to Dublin and visiting the city - I heard a lot about and seems to be beautiful. Moreover, it would be also a good possibility to visit my friends who live there.

I don't know a lot about Quidditch, but I think that participation in the delegation would help me to get some knowledge.

I can guarantee a lot of enthusiasm as I am very sociable and responsible person. I have always been eager and I can promise to be good delegate.

I would like to assist United World Quidditch Federation to see how this organisation works.

As you can see I am very interested in participating in this delegation, I hope you choose me to be the delegate.
